

All values are fixed-policy full-run evaluations, three seeds per arm. Minimum separation and episode length are reported in the text. Per-seed values are unavailable, so no seed dots are drawn. Communication mainly improves safety and coordination in interaction-dependent crossing encounters rather than simply increasing arrival rate.